Connecticut Food Ship for Belgium.
Over 1,000 men and women, and other non-combatants are in the Belgian bread line. Unless America is to let starve those whom she has saved, until now, more food must be supplied.

The Connecticut committee of the commission for relief in Belgium has set to work to load a "Connecticut food ship" jointly with the international commission, which has agreed to meet whatever is raised here, dollar for dollar. All administration expenses are guaranteed; every cent contributed will reach Belgium in the shape of food.

The commission has offered to meet whatever we raise, dollar for dollar. Connecticut's half of this shipload will cost approximately $100,000, of which the greater part must be secured in large subscriptions. Every dollar contributed will reach Belgium in the shape of food, without any diminution.

Gifts of money, large and small, may be sent either to the William A. Aiken, Norwich, or to Charles C. Russ, state treasurer, care Hartford Trust company, Hartford.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

DAVIS THEATRE.

Last Chance to See the Greatest Acrobatic Act in the World.

The feature photoplay today is one that will appeal to everyone for it has two screen favorites that everyone knows, namely, Mae Marsh and Robert Harron. This Mutual master picture is called Her Shattered Idol and as the vivacious wife of Colonel Aiken, full of spirit and dash that has endeared her to the public, Miss Marsh does some of her cleverest work in this picture, and Bobby Harron, the suitor who almost lost Mae's hand, and Elmo Lincoln, the powerful blacksmith who almost won Mae's fickle heart, play their parts with a spirit and animation that turn a usual love story into an extraordinary feature picture. This is one of the latest Mutual master pictures and is equally as good, if not better, than the other feature pictures that have been shown here. Another feature picture that will be shown on this bill is a two reel western drama called The Poole of Frontier. It features William S. Hart, that great western actor whom everyone likes. A corking good comedy is shown besides the extraordinary vaudeville attraction, the Seven Bracks, who are easily the greatest acrobats in the world. It would seem that the manner of acrobatic feats have been shown to perfection, but the famous Bracks, who come here direct from the New York Hippodrome, have found something new and startling. They do things that would seem impossible. In one, two, three and four they fly from one pair of feet to another and then to the floor in a whirlwind fashion that is akin to flying. The septette range in size from a husky lad of about 17 to a six-footer who weighs in at 250 pounds. They do at 2:30, all seats 10c, children 5c. Don't miss seeing this great act. Never mind the heat, it's always cool inside the Davis.

COMING TO THE DAVIS NEXT WEEK.

Big Girl Act and Mutual Master Pictures.

The feature picture to be shown here today is called A Man and His Mate, a four-part Mutual master film, telling how a young couple, athlete of high ideals and good birth, acquire the morphine habit, and later, a social outcast and physical wreck, finds his way into the western world. The picture is a most stirring adventure, he is mistaken for a horse thief and is about to be hung by an enraged mob of cowboys when a woman, who saves him from a felon's death, and a woman's patience and skill cures him of his relentless appetite. There are some big moments in the picture, the scenes are alive with action of the most exciting kind. There is an exciting football match, a running fight on horseback, a man to man fight between a crook and a half-breed Chinaman—all in the rugged open country of ranch land and foothills. Henry Woodruff of "Brown of Harvard" fame plays the part of the unfortunate hero who wins back the mastery over his own self. The character calls for the display of dramatic talent of the highest order, and he insures his place as a romantic star of the first magnitude. Gladys Brockwell makes an appealing heroine and a strong supporting company rounds out this splendid film. The vaudeville feature for Monday is The Earl and the Girls, a big musical comedy with 10 people, most of them, and a host of pretty costumes. This is not a tab-show but a big time girl act, direct from the Keith theatres.

TOM CARROLL AND HAPPY McNALLY

Returning to the Auditorium Next Week.

The two popular comedians, Tom Carroll and Happy McNally, who have appeared at this house twice already this season with the Hinky Doo Girls, have been secured for next week again and this time they are with the Parisian Girls and it is positively the best musical comedy show that has appeared here thus far. Tom Carroll and the Jew and Happy McNally doing black make a pair of comedians that are hard to beat, and who are especially popular in Norwich. There are 12 people in the company and a fine looking chorus of six girls. There will be three changes of bill in each week, Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and six changes of costume in each bill. Messrs. Carroll and McNally have been working together every week since they played here last and have gotten together a lot of new stuff and are sure to please even better than they have on previous occasions. Their new show will run an hour and there will be the usual three shows daily. On the picture programme will be the three reel film feature, entitled Shattered Memories, featuring Bob Leonard and Ella Hall. This is one of the Universal best photoplay features. The comedy reel is My Friend the Milkman, and is by the Nestor company.

Today the Loveland Girls will present their musical comedy, My Friend the Milkman. This is a very funny story comedy with 15 people in the cast, including six lively chorus girls, and running solid hour. Across the Footlights, a two reel drama, and Broken Hearts and Pledges will be the comedy reel by the L-KO company.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

The Lure of Mammon, Three Reels, Broadway Favorites-Features.

Today the Colonial Theatre offers one of those new and exceptionally strong

Kalem plays made by the Broadway Favorites, a company which is headed only by those actors who have achieved fame on Broadway, New York. The famous player for this red-drama today is Fania Marinoff, the wonderful little woman who made all New York gasp at her wonderful work and at the magnetism of her vivacious personality. This story today is entitled The Lure of Mammon and is distinctly a story that has to do with the pursuit of wealth. All of the other big Kalem favorites appear in this feature also, and the settings of this society drama are sumptuous in the extreme. To say nothing of the magnificent gowns. Other films today are The Master of the Sword, a brilliant romantic drama by the Elstree company, and My Fair Takes a Night Off, one of those convulsing domestic comedy dramas that everyone enjoys so much.

Charlie Chaplin is here again Monday in what is conceded to be his greatest and newest success, entitled Work. As everyone knows, Charlie does not appear to like work, but those who see this film Monday will agree that he knows what it is like when the picture is finished.

Coming Monday, Charles Chaplin in his greatest comedy success, Work, in two reels.
